DISABILITY DEFINITION

Under the Equality Act 2010, a person has a disability if:

- They have a physical or mental impairment
- The impairment has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to perform normal day-to-day activities

For the purposes of the Act, these words have the following meanings:

- Substantial means more than minor or trivial.
- Long-term means that the effect of the impairment has lasted or is likely to last for at least twelve months.
- Normal day-to-day activities include everyday things like eating, washing, walking and going shopping.
